Claim Objections

Claims 19-21 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim.

Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. The selected WOT and the measured WOT curves as a function of roll diameter or web length are already recited in claim 17.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112 2nd Paragraph

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 17-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 17-32 are indefinite and vague. What is considered to be "if the roll will be damaged?" How does using the selected WOT (Wound-On-Tension) curve as an input to the model of roll stress produces an output which is used in the model of roll relaxation? What is considered to be the roll stress? What is considered to be the winding recipe? Is it the actual winding process or just the winding model? How are these various models used in the winding recipe? How is the data used for forming the winding recipe? The WOT curve needs to be defined and how and when the WOT curve takes place into the winding recipe.

Claim 18 is indefinite and vague. What is considered to be "the mechanics of the winding-up and to the strength of the paper web?"

Claim 22 is indefinite and vague. What is considered to be "a variation of the secant method?"

The term "as long as possible" in claim 23 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term "as long as possible" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

Claim 25 is indefinite and vague. What is considered to be the roll will withstand winding in the wind-up?

Since applicant has failed to explain other parameters clearly in the claims, in so far as the claims are understood as a method of controlling wind-up roll using a model based on tension, radius, and profile of the roll.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 17-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hakiel, U.S. Patent No. 5308010.

Hakiel '010 discloses a model running parameters such as, relaxation radius, tension (i.e., Wound-On-Tension), number of laps, and profile of the roll, to determine a winding recipe and able to repeat the process as separate steps with calculation, see figures 3A-E.
